

Tom Bloemers, CDir, CPC, CMA, CSCA, SIP, PMP, is a dedicated transformation professional, project manager, and board director.

Elected to the PMI Board in 2023, Tom has served as Chair of the Audit & Risk Committee and as a member of the Strategy Oversight Committee. His volunteer board service has equipped him with invaluable experience in providing strategic oversight, financial leadership, corporate governance, and talent leadership to the PMI CEO, executive team, and volunteer community.

Tom is the founder of a consultancy firm based in The Netherlands and Curaçao, where he works as a transformation partner, executive leadership coach, and consultant. He specializes in enhancing organizations' success rates in achieving their strategic goals. Tom has a proven track record of leading complex global strategic transformation projects across various industries. His core competencies include board governance, strategic thinking, strategy execution and transformation, culture and leadership development, executive coaching, financial planning, volunteer community building, and program and project management.

Previously, Tom held senior transformation roles at KLM and Philips and worked as a consultant with Deloitte in London and Amsterdam. He began his career as a civil servant with the United Nations and the World Trade Organization in Geneva, and the Ministry of Finance and Economic Development in Mauritius.

A regular speaker at international conferences, Tom shares his enthusiasm for helping organizations and individuals achieve strategic and transformational change through high-energy project leadership.

Tom holds several professional qualifications, including Chartered Director, Certified Professional Coach, Certified Management Accountant, Certified in Strategy and Competitive Analysis, Strategy Implementation Professional, and Project Management Professional (PMP)®. He also holds an MSc in Economics.